

Legal Disputes of Disclosure and Transparency under Kuwaiti Capital Market Authority Law

Authors : Mohammad A. R. S. Almutairi

Abstract : This study will provide the introduction that constitutes the problem cornerstone of legal disputes of disclosure and transparency under Kuwaiti Capital market authority Law No. 7 of 2010. It also will discuss the reasons for the emergence of corporate governance and its purposes in the Capital Market Authority Law in Kuwait. In addition, it will show the legal disputes resulting from the unclear concept of disclosure and interest and will discuss the main reasons in support of the possible solution. In addition, this study will argue why the Capital Market Authority Law in Kuwait needs a clear concept and a straight structure of disclosure under section 100. This study will demonstrate why a clear disclosure is led to a better application of the law. This study will demonstrate the fairness in applying the law regarding the punishment against individual, companies and securities market. Furthermore, it will discuss added confidence between investors and the stock market with a clear concept under section 100. Finally, it will summarize arises problem and possible solution.

Keywords : corporate governors, disclosure, transparency, fairness

Conference Title : ICCLMPL 2019 : International Conference on Commercial Law, Media and Public Law

Conference Location : Amsterdam, Netherlands

Conference Dates : August 06-07, 2019