

India's Strategy toward Afghanistan since 9\11

Authors : Saifurahman Fayiz

Abstract : overall, India had friendly relation with different governments in Afghanistan except for the Taliban regime amongst the years 1996 to 2001. The terrorist attack in the United States provided India a chance to follow its strategy in Afghanistan. India support Afghanistan since 9\11. The objectives of this study to study India's strategy towards Afghanistan and its implication to neighbor countries. The research method conducted based on qualitative research method with descriptive. The research findings propose that; India has chosen a soft power policy to implement its strategy in Afghanistan.

Keywords : strategy, policy, soft power, Afghanistan

Conference Title : ICUIMTFG 2021 : International Conference on Uncontrolled Irregular Migration, Terrorism and Fear of Globalisation

Conference Location : London, United Kingdom

Conference Dates : December 09-10, 2021