

Assessing India's Foreign Policy Towards Afghanistan

Authors : Saifurahman Fayiz

Abstract : Afghanistan and India have close technical, political, economic, and diplomatic bilateral ties. The ties is not limited between the governments of the two countries, but their relationship are among the peoples. India is the best regional trustworthy partner and biggest donor for the development of Afghanistan. The objectives of this study to assess India's foreign policy towards Afghanistan since 9\11. The research method conducted based on qualitative research method with descriptive. The research findings propose that; India should deal with and build up its strategy relations with neighbor countries.

Keywords : strategy, policy, India, Afghanistan

Conference Title : ICPS 2022 : International Conference on Peacebuilding Studies

Conference Location : Montreal, Canada

Conference Dates : May 23-24, 2022