

The Labor Market in Western Balcans

Authors : Lavdosh Lazemetaj

Abstract : The labor market in W.B. Countries presents problems and challenges, this is dictated by different risk factors. The levels of unemployment in the region are high and the rates of its reduction are a challenge. This paper presents these challenges and problems that the countries face. of the BP region. The region as a whole and the countries in their particularity are analyzed, according to the specifics, the development trends related to the labor market are looked at. Conclusions are also given that emerge from the analysis of the labor markets prior to the monitoring done by the EU and the World Bank.

Keywords : Economic Development, European Union, Economic Growth, Labor Market

Conference Title : ICDLSLE 2022 : International Conference on Demands of Labour Services in Labor Economics

Conference Location : Rome, Italy

Conference Dates : November 14-15, 2022