

Perceptions of Islamic Education Teachers on the Implementation of 21st Century Learning Practices

Authors : Hafizul Rasdi

Abstract : This study was conducted to find out the perceptions of Islamic Education teachers on the implementation of 21st century learning practices in Kuching, Sarawak. This study uses the field method. Eight respondents were selected based on the interviews and focus group discussions conducted among teachers in four primary school in Kuching, Sarawak. This study is focused to find out the perceptions of Islamic Education teachers on the implementation of 21st century learning as well as the importance of 21st century learning in the subject of Islamic Education. Data were collected using library research, semi-structured interview transcripts and focus group discussions. Data analysis methods used was descriptive analysis. The findings of the study have shown that Islamic Education teachers in primary school in Kuching, Sarawak agreed on the implementation of 21st Century Learning Practices in Islamic Education subject. The finding also show that the application of 21st Century Learning Practices in the subject of Islamic Education can help improve students mastery of the subject.

Keywords : perceptions, Islamic education, 21st century learning practices, teachers

Conference Title : ICAIS 2023 : International Conference on Arabic and Islamic Studies

Conference Location : Bali, Indonesia

Conference Dates : October 23-24, 2023