

The Role of Youth Entrepreneurship in Developing the Algerian Economy

Authors : Benabdelaziz Soufyane

Abstract : The process of developing the activity of small and medium-sized enterprises(SME), and increasing the entrepreneurial sense, is becoming at the current period as one of the main bets, where many countries around the world try to give it the great importance because of their positive role in improving the economic development indicators in these countries. As a result of the sequential changes that international economic environment lives, the biggest global economic entities has become threatened because of different secretions financial crises and economic disorders. For this lots of countries tended to search for a mechanism to help it for creating new jobs and to spur the economy in order to face the foreign competition, for this, we find the process of creating innovative entrepreneurial activity comes at the forefront of solutions for the purpose of achieving that. For the purpose of highlighting the role of this process and its future in the economy, this study seeks to consolidate the innovation's concept and innovative entrepreneurship, then the success's conditions of these entrepreneurships, to conclude with recommendations , solutions and important results.

Keywords : entrepreneurship, innovation, performance, vigilance, modernity, technology, business incubators

Conference Title : ICABE 2023 : International Conference on Accounting, Business and Economics

Conference Location : Dubai, United Arab Emirates

Conference Dates : December 25-26, 2023