Challenges in E-Government: Conceptual Views and Solutions

Authors : Rasim Alguliev, Farhad Yusifov

Abstract : Considering the international experience, conceptual and architectural principles of forming of electron government are researched and some suggestions were made. The assessment of monitoring of forming processes of electron government, intellectual analysis of web-resources, provision of information security, electron democracy problems were researched, conceptual approaches were suggested. By taking into consideration main principles of electron government theory, important research directions were specified.