

Reform of the Law Relating to Personal Property Security

Authors : Ji Lian Yap

Abstract : This paper will critically consider developments in 2014 in relation to the law relating to security over personal property in Hong Kong. The rules governing the registration of charges under the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance will be examined. Case law relating to personal property security will also be discussed. The transplantation of the floating charge into China's Property Law will also be considered.

Keywords : personal property, security law, reform of the law, law

Conference Title : ICBAME 2015 : International Conference on Business Administration, Management and Economics

Conference Location : Singapore, Singapore

Conference Dates : January 08-09, 2015