

Theory from Shah Wali ullah's Philosophy on Inter Religion Harmony and World Peace

Authors : Muhammad Usman Ghani

Abstract : Religious tolerance is essential for the establishment of peace in the world. In the system created by Almighty ALLAH where a lot of diversity is found, still this world holds unity itself. In today's world, human beings have been divided into clashes of Civilizations, or divided on the basis of religions or lingual differences. A religious scholar of Indo- Pak subcontinent describes four ethics, on the basis of which all religions of the world can unite. He says in his philosophy of religion that there are number of elements common in all religions but four are very common and they are: Cleanliness, Nobel deeds, Relation to Almighty (Existence of Almighty) and Justice. He says that this universe also holds its integrity in itself. All humans are different in their attributes but to be a human being is common in them. Similarly, all species of the universe are different in their nature, but to be the creature of God is commonly shared by all of them.
