

Public Administrators, Code of Conduct and the Nigerian Society

Authors : Mahmud Adam, Inuwa Abdu Ibrahim

Abstract : The issue of ethics and values of public office holders in Nigerian has been and still is a matter of great mystery. Their behaviours in the discharge of their official responsibility remain unsatisfactory. The paper looks at the code of conduct and the societal values with which the Nigerian Administrators function today. Secondary sources of data were used. In conclusion, a change in attitude, reorientation, harsh and enforceable laws is required to reverse the trend.

Keywords : society, administrators, code of conduct, Nigeria

Conference Title : ICSBS 2015 : International Conference on Social and Behavioral Sciences

Conference Location : Istanbul, Türkiye

Conference Dates : July 29-30, 2015