

Most Important Educational Planning Issues in the Developing Countries

Authors : Naeem Khan

Abstract : In 1971 Williams in his essay titled "What Educational Planning is About in Higher Education" defined educational planning as "planning in education, as in anything else consist essentially of deciding, in advance, what you want, to do and how you are going to do in". In the "World Year book of Education". While Anderson and Bowman in 1976 in their joint article titled "Theoretical Considerations in Educational Planning" defined it as "the process of preparing a set of decisions for future action pertaining in education". There are so many other definitions which are related to educational planning in which every one stress on the importance of educational planning. But developing countries face a lot of problems related to the educational planning and this paper is to discuss few of them.

Keywords : educational planning, problems, developing countries, education system,

Conference Title : ICBEFM 2015 : International Conference on Business, Economics, Finance, and Management

Conference Location : Jeddah, Saudi Arabia

Conference Dates : January 26-27, 2015