

EU Integration Impact over the Real Convergence

Authors : Badoiu Mihaela Catalina

Abstract : Main focus of COHESION policy was reducing social and economic disparities between member states and regions, sustainable development and equal opportunities. In this perspective, the present study intend to analyze the evolution of the European architecture and its direct impact over the real convergence in the member states.

Keywords : cooperation, European union, member states, cohesion policy

Conference Title : ICFE 2015 : International Conference on Finance and Economics

Conference Location : Paris, France

Conference Dates : February 23-24, 2015