

Some Aspects of Improving Service Sphere Management in Georgia

Authors : Gechbaia Badri

Abstract : In the article, it is studied and realized the perfection issues of service sphere management in Georgia's reality. As stated above, to transfer the country's economy onto marketing relationships, to form competitive dynamic market is dictated by the time and represents objective necessity. In the last period, the abruptly increasing of changes on science and education caused servicing sphere and producing skills, consumptions based on fields of places and changing role in a structure of the national economy. The main recourse in the new system of the economy became the intellectual capital. The economical progress is significantly determined by developing informational technologies. In the article, it is investigated the service problems of different fields of national economy and are given sentences to settle these problems.

Keywords : service management, service, paradigm, business and management engineering

Conference Title : ICAEM 2015 : International Conference on Agribusiness Economics and Management

Conference Location : Prague, Czechia

Conference Dates : March 23-24, 2015