

Muslim Women and Gender Justice Facts and Reality: An Indian Scenario

Authors : Asmita A. Vaidya, Shahista S. Inamdar

Abstract : Society is dynamic, in this changing and development processes, Indian Muslim women where no exception to this social change. Islam has elevated her status from being chattels/commodity to individual human being having separate legal personality and equal to that of men but in India, even two women are not equal in availing their matrimonial rights and remedies, separate personal laws are applicable to them and thus gender justice is a fragile myth.
