

Fragile States as the Fertile Ground for Non-State Actors: Colombia and Somalia

Authors : Giorgi Gogvadze, Jakub Zajączkowski

Abstract : This paper is written due to overview the connection between fragile states and non-state actors, we should take into account that fragile states may vary from weak, failing and failed. In this paper we will discuss about two countries, one of them is weak (Colombia/ second one is already failed- Somalia. We will try to understand what feeds ill non-state actors such as: terrorist organizations, criminal entities and other cells in these countries, what threats are they representing and how to eliminate these dangers in both national and international scope. This paper is mainly based on literature overview and personal attitude and doesn't claim to be in scientific chain.

Keywords : fragile States, terrorism, tribalism, Somalia

Conference Title : ICPSIR 2015 : International Conference on Political Science and International Relations

Conference Location : Prague, Czechia

Conference Dates : July 09-10, 2015