

A Survey on Erotic Literature, Woman, and Its Sociological Aspect

Authors : Sulmaz Mozaffari, Zahra Mozaffari, Saman Mozaffari

Abstract : Erotic literature is a branch in modern literature which has the key terms of woman and her sexual desire. It has so many supporters and it is growing to be more important everyday and in such a way that it is criticized on social medias. To create their work in that part of literature, the authors take the woman into consideration to explore the cultural, social, and political theories. In this research, the author gives an analysis of the erotic literature in Asia and the role of woman as the main element in it.

Keywords : erotic literature, social media, woman, attract addressee

Conference Title : ICCWSS 2015 : International Conference on Children, Women, and Social Studies

Conference Location : Vienna, Austria

Conference Dates : June 21-22, 2015