

Study of Residents' Perception of Tourism: The Case Study of Chabahar City, Iran

Authors : Majid Omidikhankahdani, Maryam Omidikhankahdani

Abstract : Chabahar city located southeast of Iran and is one of strategic regional port in Oman sea aim of this study was measuring Chabahar city resident perceptions about tourism positive and negative effect. 322 participants selected via random sampling and fill questionnaire about their attitude toward tourism economic, social cultural and environment positive and negative impact. the result showed perspective of resident tourism have more positive effect than negative effect, also pair sample t test showed significant difference between positive and negative effect of tourism in favor positive effect.

Keywords : tourism economic effect, tourism environment, residents attitude, tourism social-cultural

Conference Title : ICCHT 2016 : International Conference on Cultural Heritage and Tourism

Conference Location : Paris, France

Conference Dates : January 21-22, 2016