

Role of Academic Library in/for Information Literacy

Authors : Veena Rani

Abstract : This paper presents the role of academic library in information literacy in the present time. Information is the very important aspect for the growth of any country. In this context information literacy is an essential tool in the development of various fields. Academic library is an essential part of university as well as of an institution. In Academic library we can include university library, college library as well as school library. Academic libraries are playing an important role for information literacy. Academic libraries provide excellent services for the benefit of students, teachers, researchers, and all those who are interested in education. All over the world many of the schemes, policies and services provide for information literacy.

Keywords : information literacy, academic library, tool literacy, higher education

Conference Title : ICFBE 2015 : International Conference on Finance and Business Economics

Conference Location : New York, United States

Conference Dates : June 04-05, 2015