

Collective Actions of the Women in Black of the Gaza Strip

Authors : Lina Fernanda González

Abstract : Through this essay, an attempt will be made to make visible the work of the international network of the Women in Black (henceforth WB), on the one hand. On the other hand, the work of Women International Courts as a political practice will be showed as well, focusing their work into generating a collective identity - becoming thusly a peace building space, rescuing in this way the symbolic value of their practices consisting in peaceful resistance as political scenarios, that serve, too, a pedagogical and healing purposes.

Keywords : collective actions, women, peace, human rights and humanitarian international law

Conference Title : ICPSIR 2016 : International Conference on Political Science and International Relations

Conference Location : London, United Kingdom

Conference Dates : January 18-19, 2016