

Transportation Language Register as One of Language Community

Authors : Diyah Atiek Mustikawati

Abstract : Language register refers to a variety of a language used for particular purpose or in a particular social setting. Language register also means as a concept of adapting one's use of language to conform to standards or tradition in a given professional or social situation. This descriptive study tends to discuss about the form of language register in transportation aspect, factors, also the function of use it. Mostly, language register in transportation aspect uses short sentences in form of informal register. The factor caused language register used are speaker, word choice, background of language. The functions of language register in transportations aspect are to make communication between crew easily, also to keep safety when they were in bad condition. Transportation language register developed naturally as one of variety of language used.

Keywords : language register, language variety, communication, transportation

Conference Title : ICELL 2015 : International Conference on English Language and Linguistics

Conference Location : Bali, Indonesia

Conference Dates : October 11-12, 2015