

The Mechanism of Upgrading and Urban Development in the Egyptian City: Case Study of Damietta

Authors : Lina Fayed Amin

Abstract : The research studied, in the beginning, the related urban concepts such as the urban, development, urban development. As it also deals with the upgrading, urban upgrading, community participation and the role of local administration in development and upgrading projects. Then it studies some regional upgrading & urban development projects in Egypt followed by international projects, and the analysis the strategies followed in dealing with these projects. Afterwards, we state the regional aspects of both Damietta governorate & city, dealing with its potentials & development constraints. Followed by studying the upgrading and urban development projects strategies in reflection to the city's crucial problems, and the constraints that faced the upgrading & development project. Then, it studied the implementation of the project's strategies & it provided the financial resources needed for the development project in Damietta city. Followed by the studying of the urban and human development projects in the upgrading of Damietta city, as well as analyzing the different projects & analyzing the results of these projects on the aspects of the city's needs. Then the research analysis in comparison the upgrading and urban development project in Damietta and the regional upgrading and development projects in Egypt. As well as the comparison between the upgrading and urban development project and the international projects in some Arabic and foreign countries in relation to the goals, problems, obstacles, the community participation, the finance resources and the results. Finally, it reviews the results and recommendations that were reached as a result of studying the similar urban upgrading projects in Egypt and in some Arabic and foreign countries. Followed by the analytical analysis of the upgrading and urban development in Egypt

Keywords : Damietta city, urban development, upgrading mechanisms, urban upgrading

Conference Title : ICAEDM 2016 : International Conference on Architectural Engineering and Design Management

Conference Location : London, United Kingdom

Conference Dates : February 25-26, 2016