

The Factor Affecting the Students' Participation and Satisfaction in Activities of Student Affairs in Faculty of Management Science

Authors : Natthiya Nuchanang, Pannarunsri Inpayung

Abstract : The study of participation in student affair activity, Faculty of Management Science of Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University, these objective were 1) to study of need and attention activity of SUT student 2) to study of participation and sufficient of student affair activity and advantage of student participation. The populations were 400 undergrad students year 1st-4th. The data were analyzed by descriptive statistics. The result found that; 1. The need of participate activity of students was medium level. Environment Conservation club and Badminton club were high level of experience for student. 2. The need and attention of activity were sufficient for student. Almost problems were not having enough time. 3. The advantages of activity were high level.4. The satisfaction of students for student affair unit was high level. Major problem that students do not attend, the tired from studying, Where the activity is not permitting, activities are not interesting and activity implementation overhead.

Keywords : faculty of management science, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat university, satisfaction in activities of student affairs, students' participation

Conference Title : ICEBMM 2016 : International Conference on Economics, Business and Marketing Management

Conference Location : Prague, Czechia

Conference Dates : March 30-31, 2016