

Income Analysis of Beef Cattle Breeders for Traditional Profit-Sharing System, Tesang, in South Sulawesi Province

Authors : Sitti Nurani Sirajuddin, Muh. Aminawar, Siti Nurlaelah, Amidah Amrawaty

Abstract : This study aimed to determine the income of beef cattle breeders from the traditional profit-sharing system named Tesang. This study was conducted in the province of South Sulawesi start from April to July 2014, used quantitative methods and data analysis is of income. The population is all beef cattle breeders who perform for the traditional profit-sharing system (Tesang) in Barru Regency and Bone Regency, province of South Sulawesi. Samples are beef cattle breeders who breeding the cattle with the traditional profit-sharing system (Tesang) in Barru Regency and Bone Regency using breeding system and cattle enlargement system (expense) by fifty breeders. The results showed beef cattle breeder's income from the profit-sharing system (Tesang) where enlargement system (expense) at 6th month maintenance periods higher than the profit-sharing system (Tesang) with using breeding the cattle.

Keywords : income, beef cattle, profit-sharing system, Tesang

Conference Title : ICBESS 2016 : International Conference on Business, Economics and Social Sciences

Conference Location : Vienna, Austria

Conference Dates : June 16-17, 2016