

Ethnic Minority, Oil Theft and Insecurity in the North: Where the Gap and the Compromise are

Authors : Elaiho Osaruwense, Ajuzie Godson Chidiebere

Abstract : Nigeria of at least 250 ethnic group have suffered a lot of social, economic and political setback especially in the regime of oil and gas, that are exploited from the minority region of the Niger south-south areas. The rate of insecurity in the north gives a lot of questioning and concern, with the series of killings by the Boko Haram in some part of the north etc. the fact still remains on how the gap and the compromise will be reconciling especially with the incoming president of Muhammadu Buhari with all the problems which was not resolved by the past administration (President Ebele Jonathan), considering the configuration and the character of the Nigerian state. This paper tends to critically evaluate all these problems, assertion, proffering possible solution.

Keywords : ethnic minority, oil theft, insecurity, the gap and the compromise

Conference Title : ICPSPT 2016 : International Conference on Political Science and Political Technologies

Conference Location : Montreal, Canada

Conference Dates : July 14-15, 2016