

The Contract for Educational Services: Civil and Administrative Aspects

Authors : Yuliya Leonidovna Kiva-Khamzina

Abstract : The legal nature of the contract for educational services causes a lot of controversies. In particular, it raises the question about industry sector relationships, which require making a contract for educational services. The article describes the different types of contracts classifications for services provision from the perspective of civil law, deals with the specifics of the contract on rendering educational services; the author makes the conclusion that the contract for the provision of educational services is a complex institution that includes elements of the civil and administrative law. The following methods were used to conduct the study: dialectical method of cognition, the historical method, systemic analysis, classification.

Keywords : administrative aspect, civil aspect, educational service, industry, legal nature, services provision

Conference Title : ICLCH 2016 : International Conference on Law, Culture and the Humanities

Conference Location : Paris, France

Conference Dates : December 29-30, 2016