

Development of Border Trade of Thailand-Myanmar: Case Study of Ranong Province

Authors : Sakapas Saengchai

Abstract : This research has objective to study and analysis, expending linkage of trading border of Thai-Myanmar and the way of development trading of Thai-Myanmar border. There are advantage of competition in ASEAN Community on collection data and observation, in-depth interview, group conversation and exchange opinion of public agency, entrepreneur and people. Result of study found that main development of border trade is 1) Cross-border service should be development infrastructure of land telecommunication, sea has support economics of cross-border trade, 2) International consumption service should be expand service with Myanmar and India for linkage with entrepreneur and trading from international to Thailand, 3) Establish business for provide service has development cooperation of logistics via Andaman of Thailand, and 4) Mobility personnel, exchange personnel including labor for development potential of border trade has competition advantage.

Keywords : border trade, development, service, ASEAN

Conference Title : ICEABM 2016 : International Conference on Economics, Accounting and Business Management

Conference Location : Amsterdam, Netherlands

Conference Dates : December 01-02, 2016