

A Critical Appraisal of Illegal Immigrants in Maldives: An Overview

Authors : Md. Zahidul Islam, Mohamed Shujau Abdul Hakeem

Abstract : Illegal immigrants' problem is a big problem all over the world including Maldives. Nowadays, it is turned into a major problem for Maldives. Many illegal immigrants are staying in Maldives from different countries such as Bangladesh, India, Pakistan, Nepal, Philippines and Sri Lanka. The aim of this article is to highlight the present situation of illegal immigrant in Maldives. At the same time, this article also tries to explain the legal protection of illegal immigrant. The research will adopt qualitative methods of research. The qualitative method involves doctrinal. As a doctrinal research, author used secondary sources. As secondary sources, the author used journal articles, newspapers and other useful materials to help the purpose of this research. Government agencies have to more concern to solve this problem.

Keywords : critical appraisal, illegal immigrants, Maldives, overview

Conference Title : ICIRL 2017 : International Conference on Immigration and Refugee Law

Conference Location : Kyoto, Japan

Conference Dates : April 27-28, 2017