

Shopping Cart System: Load Balancing and Fault Tolerance in the OSGi Service Platform

Authors : Irina Astrova, Arne Koschel, Thole Schneider, Johannes Westhuis, Jürgen Westerkamp

Abstract : The main purpose of this paper was to find a simple solution for load balancing and fault tolerance in OSGi. The challenge was to implement a highly available web application such as a shopping cart system with load balancing and fault tolerance, without having to change the core of OSGi.

Keywords : fault tolerance, load balancing, OSGi, shopping cart system
