

Negation of Insinuation Rule on the Ideas of Imam Khomeini (RA)

Authors : Seyed Jafar Hosseini, Rahim Vakilzadeh, Hassan Movassagi

Abstract : 'Negation of insinuation' or 'negation of dominance' Rule is considered as one of the most important principles governing the policies and external relations of Islamic and religious countries. The stable and influential role which this rule puts on the behavior and policies of the Islamic religion and foreign policies of Islamic countries shows the importance of the presented topic. Among Islamic scholars, Imam Khomeini (RA) has been paid most attention to this rule on governing issues. In the present study, we are going to investigate the nature and dimensions of Negation of insinuation rule in Imam Khomeini's ideas with an analytical and descriptive method. The obtained results show that Negation of insinuation rule is an effective and main guidance in Imam's thoughts and behavior.

Keywords : negation of insinuation Rule, Imam Khomeini (RA), cultural domination, political domination, economic domination

Conference Title : ICLRP 2017 : International Conference on Law, Regulations and Policy

Conference Location : Singapore, Singapore

Conference Dates : January 08-09, 2017