

The Effectiveness of the Management of Zakat on Dompot Dhuafa in Makassar

Authors : Nurul Qalbi Awaliyah, Rosmala Rauf, Indrawan, Suherman

Abstract : Zakat is a certain amount of property which shall be issued by Moslems and given to groups who deserve it (the poor and so on) according to the conditions set by the sharia. This research aims to know the effectiveness of the management of zakat on Dompot Dhuafa in Makassar. The type of research used is quantitative research with descriptive research method. Data collection was done through the dissemination of Likert scale and measurement of the now. The samples were analyzed by as much as 68 and analyzed using SPSS 18.0. The results of the analysis of data obtained at the level of effectiveness of management of zakat in Makassar from all aspects based on SPSS has a mean 140.04 median, minimum, 141 122, and a maximum of 164. The value of all the indicators of assessment of the effectiveness of the management of zakat on Dompot Dhuafa in Makassar has an average score of (M) of 112.5 and standard deviation (SD) of 37.5. The results show that the level of effectiveness of management of zakat in Makassar city is in the category of effective percentage 85,3%. Based on the results it can be concluded that management of zakat on Dompot Dhuafa in Makassar city has been implemented effectively.

Keywords : Dompot Duafa, effectiveness, management, Zakat

Conference Title : ICIBFBC 2017 : International Conference on Islamic Banking, Finance, Business and Commerce

Conference Location : London, United Kingdom

Conference Dates : August 21-22, 2017