

Crime against Women behind Closed Doors in Indian Society

Authors : Rasha Kumari Panda

Abstract : The crime against women in closed door is an important burning issue in day to day life. Domestic violence has become daily part of women's life. It affects the millions of the women throughout the India as it violates their human rights. Crime against women behind closed door is a manifestation of historically unequal power relations between men and women, discrimination against women moreover, when the world is approaching towards modernization, worse the condition of women and girls in our society. This paper examines how the rights of women are being violated and suggests the remedial measures to empower women. Powerlessness of women is the root cause of violence has been specifically addressed.

Keywords : domestic violence, cruelty, dowry, statutes

Conference Title : ICCWSS 2018 : International Conference on Children, Women, and Social Studies

Conference Location : Mumbai, India

Conference Dates : February 22-23, 2018